RF MONOLITHICS, INC. PRESIDENT AND CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER DAVID M. KIRK NAMED ERNST & YOUNG ENTREPRENEUR OF THE YEAR[®] 2010 AWARD FINALIST IN SOUTHWEST AREA - NORTH

DALLAS, TEXAS, May 18, 2010 – RF Monolithics, Inc. (NASDAQ: RFMI) (“RFM” or “the Company”) today announced that David M. Kirk, President and Chief Executive officer, is a finalist for the Ernst & Young Entrepreneur Of The Year[®] 2010 Award in the Southwest Area- North. According to Ernst & Young LLP, the awards program recognizes entrepreneurs who demonstrate extraordinary success in the areas of innovation, financial performance and personal commitment to their businesses and communities. Mr. Kirk was selected as a finalist from nearly 65 nominations by a panel of independent judges. Award winners will be announced at a special gala event on Saturday, June 19, 2010 at the Dallas Sheraton.

"The nomination for this prestigious Ernst & Young award is truly recognition of the entire RFM team, as well as our suppliers, customers and stakeholders, for their constant commitment to our organization and its transformation," said Kirk. "Commitment and the entrepreneurial spirit are integral as we continue to innovate, grow and lead in the markets we serve nationally and globally."

The Ernst & Young Entrepreneur Of The Year awards program celebrates its 24th anniversary this year. The program has expanded to recognize business leaders in over 135 cities in 50 countries throughout the world.

Regional award winners are eligible for consideration for the Ernst & Young LLP Entrepreneur Of The Year national program. Award winners in several national categories, as well as the overall national Ernst & Young Entrepreneur Of The Year award winner, will be announced at the annual awards gala in Palm Springs, California on November 13, 2010. The awards are the culminating event of the Ernst & Young Strategic Growth Forum, the nation's most prestigious gathering of high-growth, market-leading companies.
